“DROP IN” AND SAME DAY VISITS

Smithsonian museums: Free! Hours vary by museum. Visit si.edu/museums for more information.

National Monuments: Visit nps.gov/state/dc for a full list of monuments, maps, and more.

TIMED PASSES AVAILABLE ONLINE

During the summer when it is peak tourist season we recommend making reservations and getting tickets for the following attractions:

National Archives: Plan your visit and make a reservation at museum.archives.gov.

Washington Monument: You will need a ticket to get to the top of the Washington Monument. Get your ticket online at nps.gov/wamo.

Library of Congress: Get your required timed pass and find up-to-date hours and exhibit information at loc.gov/visit.

HELPFUL INFORMATION FOR GETTING AROUND D.C.

Traveling in D.C. can be a little confusing but the Metro is the best way to get around. The D.C. metro website, www.wmata.com, is a helpful resource. The Circulator Bus takes you all around town, including national monuments not on the Metro routes. Visit their website at: www.dccirculator.com.

Our office is in 569 Cannon House Office Building, just steps from the Capitol South Metro Station.
