117th Congress

BIOGRAPHY

Congressman Ralph Norman is a proud lifelong resident of Rock Hill, South Carolina. After graduating from Rock Hill High School in 1971, he attended Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC, and graduated in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business.

After college, he spent his private sector career with the property and construction company that his father founded, and helped grow it into one of the foremost commercial real estate development firms in the region.

Rep. Norman spent 11 years in the South Carolina Statehouse before he was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 2017. Throughout his political career in the South Carolina House of Representatives and the U.S. House of Representatives, he has consistently voted in favor of limited government, individual liberties, and sound financial policies.

Over the course of his career, Rep. Norman has served with a number of organizations dedicated to improving the community, including the York County Home Builders Association, the Children's Attention Home, the Salvation Army, and the Medical University of South Carolina Board of Visitors.

He has been married for over 45 years to his wife, Elaine. Together they have four adult children and 17 grandchildren.
