16 ment of the appropriations measure to which the ap-17 proval bill relates; or

21          “SEC. 1013. (a) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION.—

22           “(1) INTRODUCTION OF APPROVAL BILL.—Any

24          an approval bill as defined in section 1015 not later 25          than the third day of session of that House after the

1 date of receipt of a special message transmitted to 2 the Congress under section 1011(b).

3 “(2) CONSIDERATION IN THE HOUSE OF REP-
4 REPRESENTATIVES.—

5 “(A) REFERRAL AND REPORTING.—Any 6 committee of the House of Representatives to 7 which an approval bill is referred shall report it 8 to the House without amendment not later than 9 the third legislative day after the date of its in-10 troduction. If a committee fails to report the 11 bill within that period or the House has adopt-
12 ed a concurrent resolution providing for ad-
13 journment sine die at the end of a Congress,
14 such committee shall be automatically dis-
15 charged from further consideration of the bill
16 and it shall be placed on the appropriate cal-
17 endar.

18 “(B) PROCEEDING TO CONSIDERATION.—
19 Not later than 3 legislative days after the ap-20 proval bill is reported or a committee has been 21 discharged from further consideration thereof,
22 it shall be in order to move to proceed to con-
23 sider the approval bill in the House. Such a mo-
24 tion shall be in order only at a time designated 25 by the Speaker in the legislative schedule within

1           2 legislative days after the day on which the 2           proponent announces an intention to the House

4           may not be given until the approval bill is re-
5           ported or a committee has been discharged
6           from further consideration thereof. Such a mo-
7           tion shall not be in order after the House has 8           disposed of a motion to proceed with respect to 9           that special message. The previous question 10          shall be considered as ordered on the motion to 11          its adoption without intervening motion. A mo-
12          tion to reconsider the vote by which the motion 13          is disposed of shall not be in order.

14                 “(C) CONSIDERATION.—If the motion to 15          proceed is agreed to, the House shall imme-16          diately proceed to consider the approval bill in 17          the House without intervening motion. The ap-
18          proval bill shall be considered as read. All 19          points of order against the approval bill and 21          vious question shall be considered as ordered on 22          the approval bill to its passage without inter-23          vening motion except 2 hours of debate equally

25          opponent and one motion to limit debate on the

1 bill. A motion to reconsider the vote on passage
2 of the approval bill shall not be in order.

3 “(3) CONSIDERATION IN THE SENATE.—

4 “(A) COMMITTEE ACTION.—The appro-
5 priate committee of the Senate shall report
6 without amendment the approval bill as defined

9 to report the approval bill within that period or 10 the Senate has adopted a concurrent resolution
11 providing for adjournment sine die at the end
12 of a Congress, the Committee shall be auto-
13 matically discharged from further consideration 14 of the approval bill and it shall be placed on the 15 appropriate calendar.

16 “(B) MOTION TO PROCEED.—Not later
17 than 3 session days after the approval bill is re-18 ported in the Senate or the committee has been 19 discharged thereof, it shall be in order for any 20 Senator to move to proceed to consider the ap-21 proval bill in the Senate. The motion shall be 22 decided without debate and the motion to re-23 consider shall be deemed to have been laid on 24 the table. Such a motion shall not be in order

1 after the Senate has disposed of a prior motion
2 to proceed with respect to the approval bill.

3 “(C) CONSIDERATION.—If a motion to 4 proceed to the consideration of the approval bill
5 is agreed to, the Senate shall immediately pro-6 ceed to consideration of the approval bill with-7 out intervening motion, order, or other busi-
8 ness, and the approval bill shall remain the un-9 finished business of the Senate until disposed 10 of. Consideration on the bill in the Senate
11 under this subsection, and all debatable motions
12 and appeals in connection therewith, shall not 13 exceed 10 hours equally divided in the usual
14 form. All points of order against the approval
15 bill or its consideration are waived. Consider-16 ation in the Senate on any debatable motion or 17 appeal in connection with the approval bill shall 18 be limited to not more than 1 hour. A motion 19 to postpone, or a motion to proceed to the con-
20 sideration of other business, or a motion to re-
21 commit the approval bill is not in order. A mo-
22 tion to reconsider the vote by which the ap-23 proval bill is agreed to or disagreed to is not in 24 order.

1           “(4) AMENDMENTS PROHIBITED.—No amend-
2           ment to, or motion to strike a provision from, an ap-3           proval bill considered under this section shall be in 4           order in either the Senate or the House of Rep-
5           resentatives.

6           “(5) COORDINATION WITH ACTION BY OTHER
7           HOUSE.—

8           “(A) IN GENERAL.—If, before passing the 9           approval bill, one House receives from the other
10          a bill—

11           “(i) the approval bill of the other 12           House shall not be referred to a com-13           mittee; and

14           “(ii) the procedure in the receiving 15           House shall be the same as if no approval
16           bill had been received from the other 17           House until the vote on passage, when the 18           bill received from the other House shall 19           supplant the approval bill of the receiving
20           House.

21           “(B) This paragraph shall not apply to the 22           House of Representatives.

23           “(b) LIMITATION.—Subsection (a) shall apply only to 24           an approval bill, as such term is defined in section 25           1015(2), introduced pursuant to subsection (a)(1).

1           “(c) EXTENDED TIME PERIOD.—If Congress ad-
2 journals at the end of a Congress prior to the expiration 3 of the periods described in sections 1012(c)(2) and 1014
4 and an approval bill was then pending in either House
5 of Congress or a committee thereof, or an approval bill
6 had not yet been introduced with respect to a special mes-7 sage, or before the applicable 10-day period specified in 8 section 1011(a) has expired, then within the first 3 days
9 of session, the President shall transmit to Congress an ad-
10 ditional special message containing all of the information
11 in the previous, pending special message and an approval
12 bill may be introduced within the first 5 days of session
13 of the next Congress and shall be treated as an approval
14 bill under this part, and the time periods described in sec-15 tions 1012(c)(2) and 1014 shall commence on the day of 16 introduction of that approval bill.

17           “(d) APPROVAL BILL PROCEDURE.—In order for an 18 approval bill to be considered under the procedures set 19 forth in this part, the bill must meet the definition of an 20 approval bill and must be introduced no later than the 21 third day of session following the beginning of the period
22 described in section 1013(a)(1) or the fifth day in the case
23 of subsection (c).

24           “(e) CBO ESTIMATE.—Upon receipt of a special 25 message under section 1101 proposing to rescind all or

1 part of any funding or cancel any item of new direct 2 spending or limited tax benefit, CBO shall prepare and 3 submit to the appropriate committees of the House of 4 Representatives and the Senate an estimate of the reduc-
5 tion in budget authority or change in receipts which would 6 result from the enactment of the proposed rescissions or 7 cancellations.

13 the enactment of the appropriation measure or new direct
