ABOUT MAJ. CAPERS

As the recipient of a Silver Star, two Bronze Stars with "V" for valor, and three Purple Hearts, Maj. James Capers, Jr. is one of the most decorated Marines in Force Reconnaissance history. Rep. Ralph Norman has filed a bill in the House of Representatives, H.R. 587, to authorize the President to award the Medal of Honor to Maj. Capers for acts of valor during the Vietnam War.

You're invited to meet Maj. Capers, hear his story, and learn more about this effort in Congress starting at 5:30 PM on Wednesday, April 12th at the American Legion in Rock Hill. This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be available.
