How long will inflation continue to rise? How long will labor shortages continue to be a problem? Is a recession on the horizon? How should companies and employees prepare for the next 12-18 months?

To help answer these questions, U.S. Congressman Ralph Norman will be hosting and moderating a panel discussion with experts on South Carolina's economy and workforce. This special forum will take place on Wednesday, May 4th, 2022 starting at 11:30 AM in Room M401 on the campus of Central Carolina Technical College in Sumter, SC.

Date: Wednesday, May 4, 2022

Time: Starting at 11:30 AM

Location: Central Carolina Technical College

Address: 506 N Guignard Dr, Sumter, SC

Building: M400

Room: Seminar Room M401

This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be provided. For a map and parking information, please visit:
